MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: MBFR

As discussed at breakfast this morning, it is Secretary Shultz's understanding, based upon statements made by Secretary Weinberger, that in the instructions to Ambassador Abramowitz which the President has approved, "flexibility in the US position on data" means that the US is willing to put aside the question of pre-agreed data pending an effort to determine whether Soviet agreement to a package of associated measures for verification can be obtained. If the Soviets accept these verification measures, the US will no longer insist on pre-agreed data.
